Greetings!

Welcome to the beginning of another year and another volume of The NASAP Newsletter. The change in location of the main NASAP office has prompted changes in other aspects of how NASAP does business. This newsletter is a prime example of how the officers of NASAP are striving to bring greater visibility and viability to the organization. Your suggestions, comments, and feedback are greatly appreciated! I look forward to hearing from you soon!

NASAP Annual Conference Updates

The 59th Annual NASAP Conference will be held in Victoria, BC Canada May 12-15, 2011. A pre-conference symposium with Dan Siegel will take place May 11 and 12 (this requires a separate registration from the NASAP conference through the Justice Institute of BC).

The Poster deadline is March 1 so there is still time to submit a proposal. Click here to go to the NASAP website for more information.

Online Registration is now open! Take advantage of the Early Bird discount and register before April 1. A downloadable registration form is also available on the website. Click here to go to the NASAP website for more information.

The conference brochure is available on the NASAP website. See all the great workshops being offered at this year's conference. There is also information about the Fairmont Empress Hotel in the brochure, so find your NASAP friends and make plans to be in Victoria, BC this May!

There are many ways to get to the conference! Just remember that all U.S. citizens will need a passport to get to and from Canada. It may take 6 weeks or more to receive your passport so apply early! Click here for Maxine Tobin's great travel tips.

Election for President-Elect

There are two highly qualified candidates for the President-Elect position. Please read their statements and then place your vote through this email.
