

THE NASAP CERTIFICATE OF STUDY IN ADLERIAN PSYCHOLOGY APPLICATION FORM

Name _____ Date _____

The purpose of the Certificate of Study in Adlerian Psychology is to recognize those who have demonstrated a commitment to the study of the Individual Psychology of Alfred Adler. It does not replace or supplant requirements for licensure as may be regulated by state or provincial authorities, nor can it serve as an endorsement of individual skills or abilities.

Requirements

- A. Candidates for the Certificate of Study shall complete a total of 100 hours (minimum) of workshops or classes in Adlerian study including:
1. A minimum of five (5) hours in attendance at Introduction to Adlerian Psychology program(s) or course(s) at NASAP Conference(s) or other affiliated Adlerian training providers or institutions.
 2. A minimum of twenty-four (24) hours of intensive workshops (minimum 4 hours in length) at an Adlerian Conference or other affiliated Adlerian training providers or institutions.
 3. The remaining hours shall be in workshops or classes at an Adlerian Conference or offered through some other affiliated Adlerian training provider or institution.
 4. All work must be completed within a five-year time frame.
- B. Candidates for the Certificate of Study shall be general members of NASAP for at least two (2) consecutive years at the time of application.
- C. Special consideration will be given to those who have completed study prior to the establishment of these revised standards for certification (2004). Requirements may be modified or waived on an individual basis for such prior study upon application to the Education and Professional Development Committee of NASAP.
- D. Study may include a combination of courses in such core areas as:
- | | |
|--|---------------------------------|
| 1. General Principles of Adlerian Psychology | 4. School Applications |
| 2. Family Counseling | 5. Counseling and Psychotherapy |
| 3. Parent Education | 6. Business and Organizations |
- E. Workshops/courses contributing to the Certificate of Study program must be offered by a minimum of three NASAP members, two of which must hold the Diplomate of the North American Society of Adlerian Psychology. In addition, at least half of the courses/workshops must be presented in face-to-face instruction by an Adlerian faculty member. Other contact with Adlerian faculty may be through videotape/audiotape instruction, web-based or other technology-based courses, or home study.
- F. Payment of $100 is required for application, review, and certificate. This fee is non-refundable; a $50 credit will be made toward resubmission within three (3) years if the certificate is not awarded.

Procedures:

1. Record your CE hours on the Course Registration Log inside this form.
2. Attach certificates of study/attendance, CE certificates, records or letters verifying completion of studies.
3. Send this completed form and documentation with a check for $100 to:
